By plane:

Leicester is in the heart of England with excellent communications by road, air and rail. The city is only 75 minutes from London by train, 30 minutes from East Midlands airport and 45 minutes from Birmingham airport by car.

East Midlands Airport (suggest to take a taxi or local bus), 30 minutes by car/taxi.

Birmingham International (suggest to take the train to Leicester via Birmingham New Street station), 45 minutes by car/taxi, 1 hour by train.

Stansted Airport (suggest to take the train direct to Leicester – takes 2 hours).

Manchester Airport (suggest to take the train to Leicester – probably takes 3 hours).

Heathrow Airport (suggest to take the tube to St. Pancras International and then a train direct to Leicester – takes 3 hours total). It will probably take 2.5 hours to drive.

Gatwick Airport is a long way away.

Train details are shown below. Once at Leicester Train Station, suggest you take a taxi to the meeting venue (maximum £10). See above for the address of the venue.

By train or coach:

Leicester is well served by trains. The main line from London departs from St. Pancras International, now the main Eurostar route to Brussels and Paris. All train connections, ticketing information and purchase can be made through the following web site:

www.thetrainline.com/. For coach travel, see:
